SECTION 3: Achievements

Criteria

The Sport SA Coach of the Year will be an individual who has made a significant contribution to the success of a person/s or team that they have coached or been the major cause for an increased standard of coaching in the sport with which they have been associated. The Coach of the Year Award recognises outstanding performance by a South Australian Coach based on their results for athlete/s they coach and excellence in coaching practices at any level. Please outline the unique coaching strategies that have been implemented to achieve this success.

Describe the qualifications and major achievements of the nominated person as a Coach to their sport(s) for the 12 month period only – 23rd August 2017 to 4th September 2018 (selection will be based on this information), addressing the criteria above, including athlete/team results:

Other than results, please describe some of the coaches' attributes or any unique coaching practices implemented that you believe have made them successful:

SECTION 4: Additional documentation to be supplied

For promotional purposes, please summarise the Nominee's contribution to their sport(s), in 60 words or less (restricted to the last 12 months only). Please also provide a recent photograph (head and shoulders, electronic high resolution version) of the Nominee for promotional purposes (this information will be used at any announcement / presentation functions).

In signing this nomination, I acknowledge that the nominee for Coach of the Year abides by our own sports code of conduct.
