SECTION 2: Definition of a Country Athlete

Criteria

The Sport SA Country Athlete of the Year is a resident in the country regions of South Australia who has achieved outstanding sporting success in SA country competitions.

A country competition is defined as events centred outside the areas defined by SA Government as Adelaide and Adelaide Hills.

Please refer to the copy of the SA Government map shown below. The metropolitan areas are shaded in lime green (Northern Adelaide), beige (Adelaide Hills) and blue (Southern Adelaide). Western and Eastern Adelaide are obscured by the road lines.

Country Areas are defined as those areas shaded in purple (Barossa), pale green (Murray and Mallee) and pale grey (Fleurieu and Kangaroo Island) and all areas further from the Adelaide Metropolitan areas (Limestone Coast, Yorke and Mid North, Far North and Eyre and Western).
