Sarah Kelly

Sport: Water Polo SA

Sarah has been Executive Officer at Water Polo SA for just under 12 months, during that time she has devoted her time to connecting with athletes, clubs, coaches and stakeholders to understand how to develop the sport in South Australia and secure greater funding. Sarah understands the importance of sport, as well as the importance of a sustainable business model that offers an affordable accessible sport to current and new members. During 2017/18 Sarah was instrumental in introducing around 770 new children to the sport of water polo through school holiday and school programs. She has a particular passion for increasing female participation and girls in sport.
