

Country Athlete of the Year

Country Athlete of the Year, supported by the Statewide Super - is a resident in the country regions of South Australia who has achieved outstanding sporting success at the state, national or international level of competition. The Award finalists are:

Bradley Clements

Organisation: Confederation of Australian Motor Sports

Bradley snatched the 2018 Australian Khanacross Championship title from a strong field of 54 competitors including the reigning champion of 2017, Michael Clements ... who happens to be his father! Bradley also competed in the 2018 SA Khanacross Championship in August coming in third place, and the 2017 Khanacross Championship also finishing third. Bradley is a talented driver who's had a very successful year in 2018.
