

Volunteer Award

The Volunteer Award, sponsored by the Sunday Mail City-Bay Fun Run and is given to an individual who has contributed on a voluntary basis to sport in South Australia. The recipient of this award will be an administrator, coach, official or undertake multiple roles as long as they have not received any remuneration (expenses and true honorarium allowed) in respect of their duties. This Award is not restricted to the last 12 months.

Kylie Doecke

Organisation: South Australian Sports Medicine Association

Over the past 12 months Kylie has shown her commitment and dedication to sport participating in a range of activities from marshalling at the Adelaide 500 and Australian Formula 1 Grand Prix to working as a Sports Trainer at the 2018 Commonwealth Games. She is also a coach with Contax netball club, mentors Uni SA Sports Trainer students and is an active member of the Sports Trainers Reference Group Committee at the SA Sports Medicine Association providing advice around training, education and professional development for sports trainers across South Australia.
